THE FOOT RACE.

A Law Suit Grows Out Of It.

Ben Rosenthal and his backer Dr. Reed of Hawthorne left for home yesterday without making any race. They claim that Mr. Furlong should have had his second deposit up on Saturday instead of Monday and claimed the forfeit. Furlong on Wednesday night met Dr. Reed, and they had a long talk in the rooms of the Central Saloon.

Reed claimed that the terms of the written contract had not been complied with and the second money not deposited by Furlong till Monday the $500 was forfeited. Furlong claimed that he had been led to suppose from the talk he had with Reed after the agreement had been signed that Tuesday was the day. He did not realize that Saturday was the day until Mr. Peters of the Bank called his attention to it after banking hours.

He thought that if the Hawthorne people wanted to run and win $3,000, as they had boasted that all they had to do was to add $1500 to the money already up, and they would bring the men to the mark. Reed said he had no assurance that the money would be paid if won. Furlong then offered to let them hold the stakes and name the referee. They declined every proposition and stuck to their call for the $500.

Furlong said that if they get his money they would have to run for it. The Bank then refused to pay the money over and Furlong has engaged Torreyson and Woodbury to begin suit. It is not probable that the Bank will ever care to hold any more stakes.

EL RIO REY.—Theodore Winters passed through today on his return from St. Louis where his stable of fast horses are located. He says El Rio Rey is in first class condition, with the exception of some throat trouble which at present incapacitates him from running long distances. Owing to this Mr. Winters thinks it would be cruel to attempt to run the horse. His horses are in training at St. Louis, though as yet no work has been done. He says the weather at St. Louis when he left there, last Saturday evening, was extremely hot and sultry.—Free Press.

THE SALVATIONISTS.—Bill Nye says: "When the Salvation army knows the great adversary of souls as well as I do they will not try to scare him with cross-eyed women or live him and his hosts by beating the tambourine, the sack-but and the landlord. Humanity, charity, soft soap and unselfishness will do more toward giving Satan that tired feeling than all the loud and onion flavored hosannas of misguided men and bleating women, who seek to harass the souls of hell with a base drum while their own children, with empty stomachs and unlaundried noses, weep at home."

THE SILVER BILL.—The dispatches say that Speaker Reed tried to strangle the silver bill by referring it to an unfavorable committee, under one of the rules, without laying it before the House. Reed is opposed to the bill, but he made a careful canvass of the House yesterday and decided that free coinage would carry.

WILL HANG TODAY.—The gallows erected for the hanging of the Pottses has three ropes, each of which will be simultaneously cut by different people. Two of the ropes are dummies, and will probably never be known to a certainty who cut the fatal cord. The execution will take place today between 12 and 1.

MAIL CARRIERS.—The contract for carrying the Bridgeport and Bodie mail has been awarded to H. A. Lawton of Kansas for $3,334 per annum, and has sublet the contract to Raycraft Bros. of Carson, and they perform the service beginning on the first of July next.

MARRIED.

In Carson City, June 19th 1890, by Rev. Geo. R. Davis, at the residence of the bride, Peter Heidinger and Francis A. Spurgeon, both of this city.

First of the Season.

This is the proper time of the year for wild men stories, the long haired and grizzled specimens of humanity who live in caves or rude huts and who subsist on berries and chipmunks and flee at the approach of man. The Truckee Republican with its customary enterprise is enabled to give to its readers the first wild man tale of the season and Truckee is enabled to come to the front as having produced the first genuine, simon-pure wild man of the vintage of 1890 as follows:

Last Sunday as T. J. Smith and a companion were going up the Tahoe road and were about three miles from town, what should they see ahead of them but a man who had forgotten to dress himself. There he was just as he was born, only bigger, and the minute he sat his eyes on the travelers, he up and scoots up the hill, over rough rocks and through bushes till he is about 300 yards away, when he got behind a log and looked at them. He is described as being rather young, very tall and was browned and sunburned by exposure.

The men yelled at him, but he did not reply. He had a wild frightened look, and was reduced almost to a skeleton from having to live on what he could pick up in the woods. It is probable that a party will be organized to go out and find the man. There are several expert wild-men hunters in Truckee.

FINE WORK.—The 4th of July posters for the Millerville celebration are in red and blue with the colors beautifully blended in the same line. The work was turned out on the chromatic press at the APPEAL job office and done with one impression.

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH! —What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once?
